SLEEP, FAINTING, APOPLEXY

When a man is asleep his pulse beats, and his lungs play, but he is without sense, and you can easily wake him up.

If a person faints, he too is without sense, but he has no pulse and does not breathe. Apoplexy is between the two; the heart beats, the lungs play as in sleep, and there is no sense as in fainting, but you can't shake the man back to life.

In sleep the face is natural.

In a fainting fit it has the pallor of death.

In apoplexy it is swollen, turgid, and fairly livid.

If a man is asleep, let him alone; nature will wake him up as soon as he has got sleep enough.

When a person faints, all that is needed is to lay him down on the floor, and he will "come to" in double quick time. He fainted because the heart missed a beat, failed for an instant, failed for only once to send the proper amount of blood to the brain. If you place the patient in a horizontal position, lay him on his back.—It does not require much force of the heart to send the blood on a level to the head; but, if you set a man up, the blood has to be shot upward to the head, and this requires much more force; yet, in nine cases out of ten, if a person faints and falls to the floor, the first thing done is to run to him and set him up or place him on a chair.

In apoplexy, as there is too much blood in the head, every one can see that the position is to set a man up, and the blood naturally tends downward—as much so as water will come out of a bottle when it is turned upside down if the cork is out.

If, then a man is merely asleep, let him alone, for the face is natural.

If a man has fainted by him flat on his back, for his face is deadly pale.

If a man is apoplectic, set him in a chair, because the face is turbid, swollen, and livid with its excess of blood.

What is apoplexy? From the suddenness of the attack and the apparent carelessness of it, the Greeks connected it in their own minds with the idea of a stroke of lightning as coming from the Almighty hand; it literally means "a stroke from above." As instantaneous as the hurling of a thunderbolt in a clear sky, there comes a loss of sense, and feeling, and thought and motion: the heart beats, the lungs play, but that is all—they soon cease forever. The Romans considered the person to be "thunderstruck" or planet struck, as if it were of an unearthly origin.

The essential nature of apoplexy is an unnatural amount of blood in the brain. Whatever sends too much to the brain may cause apoplexy. Whatever keeps the blood coming from the brain—dams it up—may cause apoplexy. This is the king of apoplexy which seems to come without any apparent adequate cause. Tying a cord around the neck, or holding the head downward too long, can bring on an attack of apoplexy, by damming up the blood in the brain, and keeping it from returning from the body.

A sudden mental emotion can send too much blood to the brain; or too great mental excitement does the same thing.—It is the essential nature of all wines and spirits to send an increased amount of blood to the brain; hence alcohol is said to stimulate the brain.

The first effect of taking a glass of wine or stronger form of alcohol is to send the blood there faster than common, hence it quickens the circulation; that gives the red face; it increases the activity of the brain, and so does the tongue. But as the blood goes to the brain faster than common, it returns faster, and no special permanent harm results. But suppose a man keeps on drinking, the blood is sent to the brain much faster, in such large quantities that in order to make room for it, the arteries have to enlarge themselves; they increase in size, and in doing so press against the more yielding flaccid veins which carry the blood out of the brain, and thus considerably diminish their size, their pores; the result being that the blood is not only carried to the arteries of the brain faster than is natural or healthful, but it is prevented from leaving it as fast as usual, hence a double set of causes of death are set in operation. Hence a man may drink enough brandy or other spirits in a few hours, or even minutes to bring on a fatal attack of apoplexy; this is literally being dead drunk.—Hall's Journal of Health.

ACCIDENT TO A WEDDING PARTY.

A STRAY PANIER—MYSTIFICATION OF UNMARRIED RAILROAD OFFICIALS.

Yesterday afternoon a bridal party of three couples arrived in the 6 p. m. Orange train at the Maryland avenue depot, and while alighting from the cars one of the ladies lost an which fell to the platform. Conductor Sutherland called to her, but she not appearing to notice him, he called louder, "I say, Miss, beg your pardon, but you have lost something." She turned around to look, as did the others of the party, but they all ignored the existence of any unusual object in the place pointed to, passing on without claiming it. The modest conductor, to make sure that he did see something, picked it up and walked past the party with swinging on his hand to the depot, where a consultation was held as to what it was, one knowing chap claiming that it was a bonnet, it having strings to tie on with, also whalebone springs and a sort of scolloped edge around the outside. Speculation was indulged in until the Star reporter arrived on the ground, who being at once unravelled the mystery, saying the apparatus was known among its wearers as a panier. It is now in possession of Ticket Agent Eckloff, and will be surrendered whenever the owner calls for it.

ARTICLE OF DRESS,

A PAIR HIT.—Two wags passing out of town on the Galveston road, says the Kansas Tribune, were struck with the beauties of Lawrence.

"Whose place is that?" said one of them.

"That is the lordly residence of Major George A. Reynolds. Cost thirty thousand dollars!"

"What is his business?"

"Indian Agent."

"What is his salary, and how long has he been in office?"

"Two years, at fifteen hundred dollars a year.

"What did the honest fellow do with the rest of his salary?"

"Started his brother and two other honest men in the newspaper business to denounce corruption."

OXFORD HIGH SCHOOL,

Oxford, N. C.

J. H. HORNER, R. H. GRAVES, } Associate Principals.

THIS SCHOOL, which has been for the last twenty years under the exclusive charge of J. H. Horner, will henceforth be conducted under the joint supervision of the above principals, with competent assistant instructors in every department.

The course of study has been extended, and boys will be thoroughly fitted for advanced classes in College, especial reference being had to the qualifications requisite to admission into the Senior classes in the University of Virginia, of Washington Lee University. The latter of which has again conferred upon the school the honor of a scholarship in that Institution.

A regular course of study in Natural Science, Commercial Science and the Modern Languages has been added to the school for those students, who, desiring to acquire only a complete business education may wish to substitute these studies for Latin and Greek.

No pains will be spared to render the instruction in the school efficient and to furnish to students the most ample facilities for thorough preparation for College or for the acquisition of a good business education; and the principals flatter themselves that their long and successful career as teachers is a sufficient guarantee that the school will be in all respects worthy the public confidence and support.

The Spring Session will open the second Monday in January.

Circulars containing terms and full particulars furnished upon application to either of the principals.

GOVERNOR VANCE AND HORACE GREELEY.

Greely talks about the disloyalty of Gov. Vance, but he was well satisfied with that of Gov. Holden until that letter was garbled. After all, however, he is half willing for Vance to take his seat.

Now let us compare the loyalty of Vance with that of Greely. Vance resisted secession in 1860-'61, while Greely was encouraging it. On the 9th of November, 1860, Greely said in the Tribune:

"If the cotton States shall become satisfied that they can do better out of the Union than in it, we insist on letting them go in peace. The right to secede may be a revolutionary one, but it exists nevertheless. * * * * We must even resist the right of any State to remain in the Union and nullify or defy the laws thereof.

To withdraw from the Union is quite another matter; and whenever a considerable section of our Union shall deliberately resolve to go out, we shall resist all coercive measures designed to keep it in. We hope never to live in a republic whereof one section is pinned to another by bayonets."

Again, on the 17th of December, three days before South Carolina seceded, the Tribune said:

"If it, (the Declaration of Independence,) justifies the secession from the British Empire, of three millions of colonists in 1776, we do not see why it would not justify the secession of five millions of Southerners from the Federal Union in 1861. If we are mistaken on this point why does not some one attempt to show wherein and why. * * * * Any attempt to compel them by force to remain would be contrary to the principles enunciated in the immortal declaration of Independence; contrary to the fundamental ideas on which human liberty is based. Whenever it shall be clear that the great body of Southern people have become conclusively alienated from the Union and anxious to escape from it, we will do our best to forward their views. * * * Let them go, we can do better without than with them."

Other leading Republican journals caught the spirit of the Tribune, and said, "Let the Union slide," and it did slide for four years, more on account of what Greeley said than on account of anything Vance ever said or did.

Now, who was most loyal, Greeley who thus wrote and spoke, or Vance who spoke everywhere for the "Union, the Constitution and the enforcement of the laws?"—Greeley and the whole Radical North have forgiven Holden, who advertised for "the head of Abe Lincoln," but with them there is no pardon nor forgiveness for Vance. "O, generation of vipers! how can ye escape the damnation of hell?"

WARS AND RUMORS OF WAR.

We can hear of nothing now but wars and rumors of war. In addition to the terrible war now going on between France and Prussia, war-clouds are rising upon the Eastern horizon, threatening to engulf the whole of Europe in gloom and darkness. Spain is a little quiet at home, which is perhaps a lull for the crowning of young Amta King of that volcanic portion of our globe, while her trans-Atlantic dependency is still anxious to enrich Cuban soil with the blood and bones of the Spaniard. In the halls of the Montezumas are heard vain threats which smack of war against the "best government," &c., as well as the "balance of the world and the rest of mankind," while from the eyes and nostrils of the Mars of Massachusetts sparkles a fire which threatens to give to "merry old England" a "pretty kettle of fish." In addition to all these, the news now reaches us that war has broken out between Venezuela and one of her adjacent countries. Of the cause of this war we are not advised.

Can it be possible that with all the advancement and enlightenment of the nineteenth century, no plan can be devised to settle differences which may arise between nations without resorting to the desolation, carnage and bloodshed attendant upon war? Can the physiosophy of the human intellect not yet approximate that era of good feeling proclaimed by the angels on the plains of Judea—Peace on earth, good will to all men!

MONEY FOR MEMBERS.

Two hundred and forty one thousand dollars of the people's money was paid to bribe the people's Representatives of the last General Assembly. Littlefield and Swepson said that Democrats got a portion of that money. We trust that there will be members of the present General Assembly who can be reached in that way. But we have our eyes upon men who stand ready to pay, if the Legislature will omit to do some things demanded by justice and the voice of an outraged, plundered and oppressed people.

TO THE RESCUE.

According to our recollection, the people of Boston, Massachusetts began war with Great Britain in resistance of a tax of about three cents per pound on tea. The people of North Carolina and Virginia, although they never drank tea, not knew anything about it, joined their fellow countrymen of Boston, and helped them to resist the oppression of the mother country, as England was then called.—Soon after came the Revolutionary War.

As we have said, the people of North Carolina knew nothing about the tea business—they never drank it, and consequently the tax collected upon it could not affect them directly; but the people of Massachusetts were oppressed, unjustly as it was thought, by this measure as well as by others, and they, the North Carolinians, feeling it to be tyranny and a use of despotic power on the part of Great Britain, went to the assistance of Massachusetts, and, all together, fought the war out, won the victory and established their independence.

Now Gov. Holden has been oppressing the people of Alamance and Caswell,—he has made war upon them, his tools and armed bands have hung up by the neck, and otherwise maltreated good people of these counties in violation of law and the Constitution. They have not made war upon the Governor, nor resisted him, except, as far as they could, through the Courts of the State. These people demand that he be arraigned before the high Court of Impeachment, and there be made to suffer for his crimes. Will the people of the other counties of the State sit quietly by and not go to the relief of Alamance and Caswell as their ancestors did to that of Boston? We believe not. Let them all join in and demand of the Legislature the impeachment of that Governor who has committed such gross violations of law upon their fellow-countrymen, in Alamance and Caswell. If the precedent be established that a Governor can make war upon one county, then it can be made on any other. So the people of every county in the State is interested in urging, with Alamance and Caswell, the immediate impeachment of Gov. Holden. If the Governor is allowed to force a tax of three cents per pound on tea from the citizens of Caswell, the citizens of other counties will have it to pay, too. Let us all join together and impeach the Governor.

IMPEACHMENT.

We have never entertained a doubt as to what the Legislature would do in regard to the question of impeachment. It is one of those questions that address themselves to the judgment as a matter of duty, in the decision of which there is no middle ground, and which no palliating or extenuating circumstances can affect.

Yesterday, at 11 o'clock A. M., Mr. Strudwick, of Orange, introduced the following resolution in the House of Representatives:

"Resolved, That W. W. Holden, Governor of North Carolina, be impeached of high crimes and misdemeanors in office."

Gov. Holden's accusers may well say of him as was said of Warren Hastings, "We charge this offender with no crimes that have not arisen from passions which it is criminal to harbor; with no offences that have not their root in avarice, rapacity, pride, insolence, treachery, cruelty, malignity of temper; in short, in nothing that does not argue a total extinction of all moral principle, that does not manifest an inveterate blackness of heart, dyed ingrain with malice, vitiated, corrupted, gangrened to the very core. We urge no crimes that were not crimes of forethought; we charge him with nothing he did not commit upon deliberation; that he did not commit against advice, supplication, and remonstrance; that he did not commit against the command of lawful authority."

The crimes of Holden, like those of Hastings, were crimes, not against the forms of law, but against those eternal laws of justice, which are the "rule and birthright" of every American citizen.

So much for the crime. As to the criminal, "he is well chosen. He is no obscure offender." In authority and station he is the highest in the State; and he is the chief of the band; the mainspring of the "Ring;" the head of his tribe; "the captain general of iniquity," under whom Littlefield robbed the treasury and bankrupted the State; under whom Bargen hung up Rogers, Murray, and Patton, and Kirk manacled Wheedon and Gray like convicted felons.

This is the culprit the House will arraign at the Bar of the Senate. In his case personal considerations cannot have place, nor can pity or commiseration plead for him until the sentence of justice is passed upon him. We have no anxious desire to see Holden punished, but we have to see the law vindicated and the rights of the citizens defended and placed beyond the caprice and malice of any one man. When this is done, let pity come in; before this is done, pity to the criminal would be an injustice to the injured.

The New York Times, recently said, alluding to North Carolina:

"Facts supplied by the Federal reports (Bureau of Education) fasten upon that State the disgrace of doing less and expending less for the education of its children than any other.

Upon which the Wilmington Star very pertinently remarks:

"Why could not the Times have added that this State, since the war, has been for the most part under the control of the Times' own party allies, the carpet-baggers and negroes? Popular education, or any other kind of meritorious concern, has occupied very little of the time of our Radical rulers, whose talents have been so profitably occupied in multitudinous schemes of pilfering."

"The new carpets in the Senate-chamber at Washington is a super-Wilton, with golden colored figures on a green ground; and it is noteworthy that within sixty days after the order for it was flashed under the Atlantic by cable, the carpet—one thousand yards—was woven, bought over by steamer, and delivered at Washington.—Exchange.

Was any China ware ordered with that carpet? We just ask for information.

PREPARING FOR THE CONTEST.

It is reported to us that Chief Justice Pearson is reviewing precedents and preparing for the trial of his friend the Governor, the constitution providing that the Chief Justice shall preside when the Governor is impeached. But it should be remembered that the Senate and not the presiding officer will decide questions of law. This is properly wisely provided in the constitution.

Arraigning Holden before Pearson with power to decide and lay down the law in the case, would be like arraigning Kirk before Bergen as Judge, or trying a league boot regue before Judge Tourgee.

It was by and through Chief Justice Pearson, mainly, that Holden was enabled to prosecute his war upon the people of the State. It was through him that Holden suspended the writ of habeas corpus, and then suspended the corpus of Rogers and and of Murray and of Patton.

The Senate very properly refused, last week, to hear Judge Pearson's memorial to that body, deprecating his own impeachment. Should he preside over that body, he might prevail upon some friend to call it up again. He, with most of the other Judges of the State, have refused to issue bench warrants for the arrest of the Governor, on the plea that he was a coordinate branch of the Government and could only be reached by impeachment. We are not a convert to such false doctrine, although inculcated by the Chief Justice, and we feel confident that when these partizan Judges offered this as an excuse for not performing a plain matter of official duty, they did not expect there would be a sufficiently bold and honest element in the Legislature to apply the remedy they thus pointed out; and that they would thus save the Governor from the penalty, and their party from the odium, which the Governor's conviction would bring up them.

But let the Chief Justice go on with his preparations. He may need them in his own case if he does not in that of the Governor's.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, Dec. 9, 1870.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock,

Mr. Graham in the chair.

Prayer by Rev. Henry Eppes, col., Senator from Halifax.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Graham, chairman of the Committee on Penal Institutions, through Mr. Jones, in accordance with instructions from the Senate, reported a bill authorizing the Treasurer to use $300,000 of the money now in the Treasury or which may be paid in, known as the special tax fund, in payment of the ordinary expenses of the State government and on appropriations to the Insane Asylum, Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind to the amount of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and for the support of convicts and the erection of the Penitentiary to the amount of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and the Treasurer is authorized to reimburse the "special tax fund" out of the first moneys which may come into the Treasury of the taxes hereafter to be levied for the purposes above set forth.

On motion of Mr. Jones, the rules were suspended in order to put the bill on its several readings. It passed its second reading.

Mr. Cowles moved to postpone its further consideration until Tuesday next, and made the special order for 12 o'clock, and be printed. After some discussion the motion prevailed.

Mr. Norment, from the special Committee on Salaries and Fees, reported a bill fixing the per diem and mileage of officers and members of the General Assembly, to wit: President of the Senate and Speaker of the House $7 per diem; members $5 per diem; Principal and Assistant Clerks $6 per diem; Enrolling and Engrossing Clerks $5 per diem; Doorkeepers and Assistants $3 per diem; and 20 cents mileage in addition for the whole.

Mr. Robbins, of Davidson, moved to amend by decreasing all of the amounts fixed in the bill.

The President ruled that only one amendment at the time was in order.

Mr. Robbins then moved to amend by striking out $7 per diem for the President and Speaker of the House, and to insert in lieu thereof $5 per diem.

A debate of considerable length arose on this motion in which the whole subject of per diem and mileage and of salaried offices was discussed.

Mr. Norment, called the previous question which was sustained, which cut off all other amendments to the bill.

The question was divided and the motion to strike out $7 was lost, by a vote of yeas 19, nays 26, and the bill was rejected by a vote of yeas 22, nays 23.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Consideration of the bill relating to Municipal Elections, question being a motion of Mr. Graham to reconsider the vote by which the Senate refused to strike out 30 days residence within the corporate limits and insert 90 days.

After some discussion the motion to reconsider prevailed, yeas 27, nays 14.

The previous question was called and sustained.

The motion to strike out and insert prevailed, yeas 27, nays 14; and the bill passed its third reading yeas 27, nays 13.

By leave the following bills and resolutions were introduced:

By Mr. Love: A bill to establish the Whitesides Mountain Turnpike, between Jackson and Macon; referred.

By Mr. Smith: Bill to amend chapter 166 of the Public Laws of 1869-70; referred.

By Mr. Gilmer: Bill to authorize the Commissioners of Guildford County to issue bonds for the purpose of funding the debt of said county; referred.

By Mr. Warren: Bill concerning debts contracted by municipal corporations; referred.

By Mr. Warren: Bill to prohibit Justices of the Peace from practicing law as attorneys in certain cases; referred.

RESOLUTIONS.

By G. W. Price, (col.): Resolution relating to a system of Public Instruction; lies over.

By the same: Resolution relating to the punishment of vagrants; lies over.

By Mr. Norment: Resolution of instruction to the committee on the Judiciary, authorizes them to report a bill, or to suggest some legislation necessary to better enforce the laws in the County of Robeson; adopted.

By Mr. Troy: Resolution in favor of R. K. Worthy, late Sheriff, and L. C. Alldred late tax collector, of the county of Moore; referred.

On motion, the bill authorizing the Commissioners of Chatham county to levy a special tax, was taken up and passed.

At twenty-three minutes past 3 o'clock the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, Dec. 9, 1870.

House called to order at the usual hour.

Prayer by Rev. Warrick, col.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Mr. McNeill was allowed to record his vote in the affirmative on the resolution in regard to the general amnesty act. He was unavoidably absent from his seat when the vote was taken on yesterday.

Mr. Gambrel presented a memorial from certain citizens of Wilkes and Alleghany, in regard to county boundaries. The memorial was read and appropriately referred.

Mr. Strudwick, presented a memorial from the Commission appointed to superintend the erection of the Penitentiary. The memorial was read and appropriately referred.

Mr. Jones of Caldwell, from the Committee on Claims, reported on several resolutions, which were placed on the calendar.

Mr. Sparrow, from the Judiciary Committee, reported favorably upon the bill repealing the act under which the Governor alleged to have authority to employ spies. The bill was placed on the calendar.

Mr. Strudwick, from the Finance Committee, reported on several bills and resolutions, which were appropriately disposed of.

By Mr. McAfee: A resolution printing 3 copies for each member of the report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction; placed on the calendar.

Mr. Strudwick offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That William W. Holden, Governor of North Carolina, be impeached of high crimes and misdemeanors in office. The resolution was referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

By Mr. Carson: A resolution in regard to adjournment; placed on calendar.

By Mr. Broadfoot: A resolution in regard to certain books; placed on calendar.

Mr. Crawford, from the Committee on Engrossed bills, reported several resolutions as being correctly engrossed.

By Mr. Settle: A bill fixing the per diem of the Presiding officers of the General Assembly at $4 per day, members at $2.50, Clerks, Doorkeepers, &c., $2.50 and mileage 5 cents, coming and returning.—Mr. Settle said that many bills and resolutions in regard to this matter had been introduced in this House, and, without impugning the sincerity of other gentlemen, he wished it to be distinctly understood, that this bill had no bearcombe about it, but was offered in good faith. Nor did he wish to produce the impression that his constituents were so picayunish, as not to wish their Representatives to have a fair and reasonable compensation, for the sons of old Rockingham were noted for their liberality and fairness of mind.—But he would have the House to remember, that the Conservative party came into power upon pledges of retrenchment and reform.

The bill after being read was referred to the Committee on Salaries and Fees.

By Mr. Brown: A resolution in favor of the Sheriff of Davidson; referred.

By Mr. Johnston of Buncombe: A resolution in favor of Jesse Sumner, late Sheriff of Buncombe; referred.

By Mr. McAfee: A bill in favor of G. W. Webb of Cleaveland; referred.

By Mr. Jordan: A bill to authorize the Commissioners of Person to levy a special tax; referred.

By Mr. Bryson: A bill to declare certain roads in Jackson county public roads; referred.

On motion of Mr. Martin, the rules were suspended and the bill in favor of the Sheriff of Carteret was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Broadfoot, the rules were suspended, and the resolution directing the Librarian to furnish the Judiciary Committee with certain books, was taken up, and adopted.

On motion of Mr. Jordan, the rules were suspended, and the resolution in regard to the alleged improper expenditure of public money by certain officers, was taken up. [The resolution alludes to the employment of spies by the Governor, the improper employment of counsel with heavy fees, ignoring the Attorney-General, the employment in the different departments of a numerous and unnecessary clerical force, and demanding of each officer, from Governor down, an exact statement of all moneys expended, to whom paid, for what service rendered, and for what information gained.] The resolution was adopted by acclamation, with a few negative votes coming from the Republican side of the House.

CALENDAR.

Resolution in favor of the Sheriff of Stokes, was taken up, and passed its third reading.

Resolution in regard to the bill for the completion of the Western N. C. Railroad, was taken up, and passed its third reading.

Bill to fix the compensation of the Treasurers of Henderson and Northampton counties, was taken up, and failed to pass its second reading.

Senate bill repealing chapter 52, laws of 1868-'69, was taken up. (section 4 gives the Governor power to appoint spies.)

Mr. Sparrow said that this bill was merely intended to do away with this spy system inaugurated by the Governor and to re-enact the old law in regard to fugitives from justice.

The bill passed its second reading by acclamation, with some few negative votes from the Republican side of the House.

Senate bill in favor of James Cashwell, tax collector of Bladen, was taken up and passed its second reading.

Bill in favor of the Sheriff of Currituck was taken up and passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Ashe, the rules were suspended and the bill declaratory of the meaning of the act entitled "an act to repeal certain acts passed at the session of 1868-'9, making appropriations to Railroad Companies, ratified March 8th, 1870, was taken up.

The question recurred upon the substitute offered for the original bill, by the Judiciary Committee, to whom the matter was referred.

Mr. Phillips opposed the substitute in remarks of length.

Messrs. French, Gregory, Ashe and McAfee argued in support of the substitute.

Mr. Welch could not support the bill or substitute, unless a Proviso was adopted, providing that nothing in the act should prevent the Legislature from providing for representation in the Road in accordance with the interest which the State might have.

Mr. Sparrow followed in support of the bill.

On motion, the further consideration of the matter was postponed and made special order for Monday at 12 o'clock, and ordered to be printed.

Adjourned.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—I am a citizen of Hopkins county, Kentucky; my guardian is a citizen of Wake county, N. C., and Gov. Holden is one of the sureties on his bond. My attorney wrote me, four months ago, that he had judgment and execution for money due me, and that the money would be in hand at the last term of Wake county Superior Court.

I arrived in the city a few days since for the purpose of getting my money, but I find in the Clerk's office that, after execution had been issued and was in the hands of the Sheriff, there was an endorsement on the execution, that by an understanding with Judge Watts, the execution was to be returned, &c. If I had known of this before leaving home I might have saved myself the trouble and expense of the trip. I hope the Legislature will pass a law to prevent Judges from having an "understanding" with parties out side of Court.

BUCHU.

[From Dispensatory of the United States.]

Diosma Crenata—Buchu Leaves

Properties.

Their odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic, their taste bitterish and analogous to mint.

Medical Properties and Uses.

Buchu leaves are gently stimulant, with a peculiar tendency to the urinary organs.

They are given in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, Morbid Irritation of the Bladder and Urethra, Disease of the Prostrate Gland, and Retention or Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. The remedy has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, chronic Rheumatism, Cutaneous Affections, and Dropsy.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu

is used by persons from the ages of 18 to 25, and from 35 to 55, or in the decline or change of life; after confinement, or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

In affections peculiar to females, the is unequaled by any other remedy, as in chlorosis, or retention, irregularity, painfulness or suppression of customary exactnations, ulcerated or schirrous State of the Uterous, leucorrhera, or whites.

Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys

Gravel, and Dropsical Swellings.

This medicine increases the power of Digestion, and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the watery or calcareous depositions, and all unnatural enlargements are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu

has cured every case of diabetes in which it has been given. Irritation of the neck of the bladder, and inflammation of the kidneys, ulceration of the kidneys and bladder, retention of urine, diseases of the prostrate gland, stone in the bladder, calculus, gravel, brick dust deposit, and mucus or milky discharges, and for enfeebled and delicate constitutions, of both sexes, attended with the following symptoms: indisposition to exertion, loss of memory, difficulty of breathing, weak nerves, trembling, horror of disease, wakefulness, dimness of vision, pain in the back, hot hands, flushing of the body, dryness of the skin, eruption on the face, pallid countenances, universal lassitude of the muscular system, &c.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu

is diuretic and blood-purifying, and cures all diseases arising from habits of dissipation, excesses and imprudences in life, impurities of the blood, &c., superceding copaiba in affections for which it is used, such as gonorrhœa, gleets of long standing, and syphilitic affections—in these diseases, used in connection with

PROF. CHANDLER of New York City, in a lecture delivered by him at Cooper Institute, March 19, 1870, said:

"It is hardly necessary to enlarge upon the terrible accidents which have resulted from the use of unsafe kerosene; you have only to read the new-papers from day to day to see them. It is stated by some that these are exaggerated; that these accidents never occur, and that you and I never had a friend burned to death; still we do have an enormous number of terrible accidents from petroleum. In the last seven months of 1869 there were fifty five kerosene accidents in New York, resulting in twenty-three deaths, eighteen serious injuries and fourteen slight ones. The total result for the year 1869, for the City of New York which I myself have cut from newspapers is fifty-two fatal accidents from dangerous kerosene, fifty severe and six slight, in all 158 persons to my knowledge, from my own reading have been injured by kerosene in one year."

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1870.

Col. John N. Ramsay, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

The funeral of little Sallie Best will take place from the M. E. Church to-day, (Saturday) at 2 o'clock, P. M. The friends of the family and members of the Sabbath School are invited to attend.

M. E. Church.—Rev. L. S. Burkhead, pastor of the M. E. Church of this city, arrived yesterday morning and will occupy his pulpit to-morrow.

Rev. L. Branson, of Raleigh, has been invited to deliver a literary address to the Literary Societies of Rutherford College, on the 14th inst.

Another Musical Convention.—The City of Raleigh is to have another Musical Convention. Mr. C. G. Allen, the gentleman who superintended the one held last Spring, proposes to have a second, to begin on Tuesday morning, January 17th, 1871.

This will, no doubt, meet with a hearty second by the lovers of music throughout the State, very many of whom will be present. Further notice will be given by advertisement in a few days. We hope our native musical artists will take an interest in this matter.

The National Life Insurance Company.—Mr. Peter P. Pescud, Jr., has become the Agent of this Company for the State of North Carolina. The National has done well in securing the services of Mr. P., and his acceptance of the Agency is a sufficient guarantee of its reliability and substantiality. We gladly commend both—Mr. Pescud and his Company—to the kindly consideration of the public.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to be present at a grand re-opening Ball, to take place at the re-opening of the Emory House, Weldon, N. C., on Monday evening 19th inst. Under the auspicies of the gentlemen composing the several managing committees, we feel assured that the occasion will be a happy one. We regret our inability to attend, but wish all the merriest of times.

A New Enterprise.—We learned yesterday with much pleasure, that there is on foot a plan for starting a large cotton factory in or very near Raleigh. Application will be made to the present General Assembly for a charter, and the work of organization commenced at an early day. Our late fellow citizen, B. P. Williamson, Esq., who never fails in anything he undertakes, is one of the active movers in the enterprise, and we have no doubt of its early and permanent success. We advise our citizens generally, especially the farmers in the surrounding country, to give an active co-operation to the matter; it will redound to the benefit of the stockholders, farmers, laborers, merchants, and indeed to the entire community, to establish factories in our midst.

The President says "he has lost faith in human nature." This must be a mistake, for he has received greater benefit from its weakness, than any man who ever preceded him in high position. He can never "lose faith" so long as the presents hold out.

We Metropolitans, who have a superfluity of public amusements, (including the grand Southern Circus Combination of Messrs. Hayes, Wynne, Lee & Co.,) if not money to pay for them, can hardly appreciate the dull condition of the people of Wood County, Texas. A denizen of that locality, in sheer desperation, wrote to the Governor of the State that they had not had a hanging, or even "a monkey show," in the county for seventeen years. Would the Governor be good enough "to send some monkeys to the county, or to order a small man to be hung!" The Governor, we grieve to say, answered after an irascible and arbitrary fashion, beginning,—"D——n you and the people of Wood County!" avowing the aforesaid people to be "an infernal set of rebels, with no right to look to the Government for amusement;" and sternly declaring that, if he could have his own way, there should be hanging enough in Wood County to satisfy everybody.

North Carolina Agricultural Almanac.—We have to plead guilty of neglect in failing to notice the appearance of the North Carolina Agricultural Almanac, for 1871, published by Jesse A. Jones, Bookseller, of this city. The truth is, we laid it aside for preservation until we could get time to give it a notice, and forgot it.—But it is out, printed in good style, with astronomical calculations by Dr. B. Craven, and containing the usual statistical and useful information generally looked for in Almanacs.

The Wilmington Journal thinks that giving the Superintendent of Public Instruction, Mr. Ashley, $50.00 per annum, a useless piece of extravagance.

"A good second-hand sewing machine for sale. Apply at the Standard office."—Standard.

Is there not a "second hand" Superintendent, and Professor, for sale cheap at the same office?

The Petersburg Index learns that the publication of "a first-class agricultural journal," is shortly to be commenced in that city. The right party, it says, has the matter in hand, and it will be a success.

One Kinard Stokes county, who wants more wives than the law allows, left the State last year for Utah. He has returned to his native county, convinced that there is a great deal more of Utah religion than is put down on paper—at least he found it to be the case,—and not liking it, has come back.

An Indefinite Warning.—One of the city policemen left at our office yesterday an undirected envelope containing a city ordinances in regard to trimming trees in front of lots by the owners or occupants, and accompanied by a notification signed "W. H. Martin, city Constable" requiring a strict compliance with the provisions of the ordinance.

Now, as these missibs are not directed to any body in particular, we don't know whether the warning is intended for the Editor, the Local, the foreman, some of the compositors, one of the pressmen or the devil. One of our compositors lives on a lot fronting Baptist Grove; and he is at a loss to know whether the documents in question require him to trim all the trees on that sacred reserve or not.

If the warning be intended for the Local, he is at a loss to know how much trimming he is required to perform, and on what trees it is to be exercised: whether two or three limbs to a tree is to be sacrificed, or a general lopping off is to be performed.

We are all scared. One of our men says the nearest trees in front of the lot he lives on are a quarter of a mile off, and he don't think the owner would let him trim them.

We do hope, if there be danger of "the penalty" pending over any of us, that a more specific notification will be given.

The Insane Asylum.—We have had laid on our table the Annual Report of the Superintendent and Physicians of the Insane Asylum of this State, for the official year ending October 31, 1870.

From this report we learn that the whole number of patients admitted to the institution since its first opening is, males 534, females 372, total 906; discharged and died, for the same time, males 415, females 259, total 674; leaving, on the first of November, 1870, males 119, females 113, total 232. The number of admissions during the last official year was, males 10, females 18, total 28; discharged during the year, 9 males and 12 females, total 21.

The health and general condition of the inmates for the year is represented as good.

The Grand Lodge of Masons of North Carolina, after a harmonious and pleasant session of four days closed its labors on Thursday night last.

The following are the Grand Officers for the ensuing year:

Charles C. Clark, Newbern, Grand Master.

Joseph B. Batchelor, Raleigh, Dep. Grand Master.

John Nichols, Raleigh, Sen. Grand Warden.

Sam'l. H. Rountree, Kinston, Jun. Grand Warden.

Wm. E. Anderson, Raleigh, Grand Treasurer.

Donald W. Bain, Raleigh, Grand Secretary.

Rev. J. L. Carroll, Forestville, Grand Chaplain.

W. L. Love, Franklin, Sen. Grand Deacon.

Sam'l. A. Williams, Oxford, Jun. Grand Deacon.

G. M. Whitesides, Rutherfordton, Grand Marshal.

T. A. Green, Newbern, Grand Sword Bearer.

B. J. Howze, Haywood, Grand Pursuivant.

J. H. Separk, Raleigh, Grand Tiler.

Ben. Goodman, the defaulting P. M. at Williamston, Martin county, has been brought to this city for trial at the present term of the District Court. We learn he will confess and throw himself upon the mercy of the Court.

P. S.—He got it—14 years in the Penitentiary.

The Wilmington Post comes out in an article of a column in length addressed to the United States Senate, urging that body not to admit Senator Vance. Such a stretch of the imagination at one time is rather too much for the Post man, and we advise him not to attempt to grapple with subjects obviously beyond his comprehension.

The Standard says that it did make the necessary correction of its misstatement relative to Mr. Graham. We are glad that it did, though it escaped our notice. The Standard has doubtless seen that its cotemporaries in this State gave publicity to the statement, yet it does not call their attention to the fact that it was untrue. We have never yet understood how it came to be published at first.

North Carolina Cheese.—The following paragraph we clip from the proceedings of the Farmers' Club, of New York.—It speaks well of the Old North State as a dairy field:

F. D. Curtis—I wish to refer to the specimens of cheese from western North Carolina, cut in the Club two weeks ago. I was one of a large committee who tasted it, and I carried a piece of it some days, and asked several good judges to taste of it. All pronounced it excellent cheese, superior to the average of Northern factory make, and some in particular praised its sharp flavor. The fact that cheese of excellent quality is made so far South is, to my mind, a very interesting one. It may add many million acres to the area from which good cheese may be expected, and it shows that Southern farmers can with profit enter upon diversified industry, and become independent of the North, in the great items of dairy products, if they will but use all the land adapted to grass.

We condense the following from the Tarboro' Southerner:

A petition will be presented the present Legislature to attach all that portion of Edgecombe lying west of the W. & W. R. R. to Nash.

James Shirby, colored, has been sentenced to the Penitentiary for eight years by Judge Jones, at the present term of Edgecombe Court. F. Hawley and Tom Brown, both colored, sentenced for five years each.

A grand Tournament and Ball at Sparta, on the 19th January.

Judge Jaybird Jones, it is said, cut a figure at Edgecombe Court the other day. He said "there's no difference twixt a white man and nigger"—but he only referred to himself, the vile J.

SPEECH OF JOHN H. WILLIAMSON.

We commend to the attention of Cyprus-men and of all fair minded men of all parties and all sections, the subjoined remarks of the representative from Franklin, John H. Williamson, colored, Republican, on the final passage of the resolution asking Congress to pass an act of general amnesty. The speaker was twice loudly applauded by the members. He was followed in the same strain by Cowthorne, of Warren, Fletcher, of Richmond, and Ellis, of Wake, all colored Republicans!

Mr. Speaker:—I rise for the first time since the assembling of this body, to submit a few remarks upon the resolution now under consideration. I have not consumed the time of this House nor do I intend to do so in making speeches.

But, sir, the resolution now under consideration is one of grave importance. If I understand it aright, it is a measure or petition requesting our Senators and Representatives to use their influence in Congress for the removal of disabilities from the people of the State.

Sir, this resolution meets my hearty approval. First, because I canvassed my county and was elected upon that issue.—Secondly, because I wish to deprive no citizen of the right that I myself enjoy.—Thirdly, because this is a free country, and the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of North Carolina accords freedom to all. Fourthly, because civil and political rights have been accorded to my race and all distinctions on account of color have been done away with. And lastly, because these disabilities rest upon and disfranchise many of the best and worthiest and nearly all of the ablest and most distinguished of our fellow citizens; and the Republican party is the liberal party and it should show it by removing the disabilities from the people of the country. Then, and not until then, will this question subside.

It is well known, sir, that I am as good a Republican as there is in this House, and when I vote for this resolution, (which I shall do,) I think I am but carrying out the Republican doctrine—that is, "equal rights before the law for all men."

I hold, sir, if the people choose one of their citizens to represent them, he should be allowed to do so.

It is inevitable that the disabilities will sooner or later be removed, and I am in favor of the Republican party taking the lead in this matter. Sir, we have already seen the effects of this proscription in West Virginia and Missouri, where the Republicans were overwhelmingly defeated on this very question. I ask why should not Republicans take the lead in this matter? Why not do it now? Let us be done with this aggravating question.

Sir, I want us to live in peace, and I think this is a good way to go at it. My action in this matter is not for the purpose of gaining favors or to be well spoken of or highly thought of, but on principle, because I believe it right, and will be endorsed by my constituents. I shall vote for the resolution.

NEW FRENCH MINISTER.

Viscount Treihard was presented to President Grant on Tuesday. He was alone and plainly attired.

Upon being presented to the President, by the Secretary of State, he said:

"Mr. President, I have the honor to place in your hands the letter whereby the government of the National Defense accredits me as its envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary near the United States of America. The friendly relations which have existed between France and the United States, and which it will be the object of all my efforts to maintain, will facilitate the execution of the honorable task which is comided to me. I entertain the hope, Mr. President, that I shall also be aided by the kindness of the Federal government which I have in times past learned to esteem, and which I have preserved in grateful remembrance."

The President replied as follows:

"Viscount: You are welcome as the envoy extraordinary and the minister plenipotentiary of France. Your former acceptable abode here, in another diplomatic character, gives occasion to congratulate you upon your promotion. It is believed that full confidence may be entertained in your friendly disposition, and you may be assured that in our intercourse with you we shall always bear in mind the origin of our kind relations with your country, and shall endeavor to preserve and strengthen them."

The President then returned to his office and the secretary accompanied the minister to the door.

The credentials of Viscount Trailhard are signed by the official delegation at Tours, namely: Cremieux, Gambetta, Forichon and Glair Bizon. He is accredited as Minister of the Government of National Defense, there being no use of the world republic.

James M. Turner, of Kinkaker, Illinois, writes enquiring for a family of Turners in North Carolina, who moved from Cumberland county, Kentucky, years ago. Any Turner can address him at Kinkaker, Ill., Box No. 1.

IMMIGRATION.

The last number of the Southern Home, Gen. D. H. Hill's paper, contains the following well-timed paragraph upon the above subject:

"Every person of sense at the south, wishes to see capital and labor introduced into our desolated region, come from what quarter it may. The Radical party has hitherto kept out these important elements of power and wealth by retarding, internal improvement, levying enormous taxes and destroying the peace and harmony of the country with a militia scum. The Southern States that have thrown off the yoke of the thieves and tyrants can now, by reducing the burden of taxation and enforcing the laws for the protection of life and property, make their country attractive to the whole world and bring in large crowds of immigrants. Every good and true man, who comes among us to make his home here, should receive a warm and hearty welcome.

For the Sentinel.

Oxford, N. C., Dec. 6, 1870.

Mr. Editor: The contested election case between Col. Edwards and Mr. Lassiter progresses slowly. Col. Edwards, however, has proven more than thirty illegal votes given to Barnett and Lassiter, and has yet to investigate more than eighty that are said to be illegal. He will be able to show enough illegal votes for the sitting members to far overcome their majority and oust them from their seats. It is asserted that a number of negro women voted for Barnett and Lassiter, certain it is that one was detected in men's clothes after offering twice to vote.

But I write to say, that it is more than probable that your arrest and imprisonment last Summer, was the result of a plan of the leagues, for Jordan Potter, a vice President of the leagues in this county, said here in a public speech, "I told you I would have Jo Turner in jail—I have kept my word—I have got him there." Then Jordan rolled up the cotton in his eyes and all the leaguers shouted.

We all here regret the escape of Kirk and Bergen, and hope you will hold fast to the Governor and the Judge, who had more hand in your arrest and imprisonment than Jordan Potter had.

Yours, X.

Married,

On Thursday, November 24th, at the residence of the bride's father, Major John A. Bryan to Miss Louisa E., daughter of General R. E. Colston, all of Wilmington, N. C.

In Warrenton, N. C., at Emanuel Church, on Thursday, the 1st inst., by the Rev. M. Marshall, Charles W. Scruggs, Esq., Editor of the "Gazette," and Miss Bettie B. Edwards, all of Warren, N. C.

DIED,

In this city on Thursday night at 11 o'clock, Sallie Mabia, daughter of R. W. and A. C. Best, aged 9 years and 11 months.

She died of disease of the heart, the result of an attack of acute rheumatism when she was four years old. She was a "sweet and lovely child, obedient and docile and the pride of her parents' hearts. She was conscious of the near approach of death, and exhibited an intelligent appreciation of the plan of redemption. But a short time before she expired, while suffering intense agony, she exclaimed: "O, Jesus come and take me home." And she has gone home, to that blest home where it is always summer and storms do never come.

"A child in Heaven! Oh, can it be?
A blessing thus conferred on me!
Though lost to us her precious face,
Yet found in Christ, a child of grace.

A child in Heaven! the blissful thought
Is to a mother's heart, tho fraught
With pain and joy that none can tell,
For she doth now in glory dwell.

A child in Heaven! in pain no more;
Her hours of sufferings are all o'er,
An angel song is her employ;
And would I rob her of her joy?

A child in Heaven! Oh, sure 'twill be,
That I my darling there shall see,
For who can tell when death doth come,
But she may waft my spirit home.

A child in Heaven! attraction rare;
One of my loved ones garnered there;
A sinless robe, her raiment now;
A seraph's crown is on her brow.

A child in Heaven! I murmur not,
But bless God for her blissful lot,
Early to be released from earth,
Early to gain her heavenly birth.

A child in Heaven! my Saviour's arm
Shelters my babe from every harm,
And though I long her face to see,
Yet Jesus, will her mother be.

A child in Heaven! but in the tomb;
The rest on earth—on high the bloom,
Her spirit is the fragrance given,
To Him, who for us purchased Heaven."

In Guilford county N. C., Oct. 6th, 1870, Mrs. Maria M. Cobb, wife of J. A. M. Cobb, after confinement of 3 days of Hemorhage from the lungs, aged 36 years, 11 months and 25 days.

Friday Evening Dispatches

ALABAMA.

Montgomery, Dec. 9.—This morning Smith, the late Radical Governor, withdrew from the contest for the Governorship and yielded the office to Lindsay, Democrat, who was chosen in the late election. Everything is joyful and no demonstrations are made except those of thankfulness that the conflict is over.

NEW YORK.

New York, Dec. 9.—William Brockaway, who is reported to be very wealthy, has been arrested on the charge of counterfeiting 7-30 bonds, of which the Government has redeemed over $250,000. He was bailed in bond of $20,000.

FOREIGN.

Tours, Dec. 9.—Montargon, in the Department of Loriel, has been evacuated by the Germans.

The army of the Loire has again started on a forward movement.

A balloon from Paris on the 8th inst., states that the situation is satisfactory, and the Prussians are constructing works in the rear of the lines from which the French recently drove them.

A large number of prisoners arrived in Paris, captured in the battles which occurred on the East and South of the city on the 2nd inst. The Prussians in their attack hurled 120,000 men against Durrel, who nevertheless held his ground and repulsed the enemy.

Berlin, Dec. 6.—King Louis of Bavaria writes to King John of Saxony asking him to assent to King William of Prussia assuming the title of "Emperor of Germany."

London, Dec. 7.—The Times on Grant's Message says: "It shows another stage in Grant's downward career and teaches how far the highest authority will go when the balance of parties is unstable."

Friday Night Dispatches.

Washington, Dec. 9th—There was a full Cabinet meeting to-day.

In the Senate to-day, resolutions were offered calling on the President for all the facts regarding St. Domingo, and in regard to the employment of troops at elections.

After an Executive session, the Senate adjourned to Monday.

The Senate will take no action regarding the Georgia Senators until January. Farrow, one of the contestants, leaves for Georgia to-night.

It appears, from diplomatic correspondence, that Motley, on the 11th of August, telegraphed the following to Fish: "It is an authentic fact that the French government telegraphed to London yesterday, to know if Gen. Lee is here, or whether he is expected. The supposition is that a military command is to be offered him. I am not aware that Gen. Lee is in London, or that he is expected. The fact, however, that the French government should show such anxiety to obtain the assistance of military talent from so distant a quarter, would seem to argue some want of confidence in the government of their armies."

It is stated on proper authority that the government has only redeemed eighty thousand counterfeit 7-30 bonds.

NEW YORK.

New York, Dec. 9.—The "World's" special from London of December 7th says, "Algui writes from St. Petersburg on the 2nd, that the warlike feeling is prevailing over the whole empire. Gortschakoff's circular created an unusual feeling of joy at Schutgard. The Emperor notifies the reserved corps to hold themselves in readiness. This is considered important. Such a measure has not been resorted to since the Crimean war.

Russia is committed to a bold line of conduct, and resolved to proceed, despite all opposition. It is announced by the Emperor that 40,000,000 rubles will be devoted to extraordinary war expenses.

By the 1st of January 40,000 armed and guns and 150,000 breech-loaders will be ready for use."

The steamer "Hornet," a suspected filibuster, got to sea last night.

FOREIGN.

Madrid, Dec. 9.—Queen Isabella sends a formal protest from Geneva against the election of Amis, but disavows any intention to use force. All political factions are violently attacking Prim and the party that elected him.

London, Dec. 9.—A dispatch from Berlin says that William accepts the title of Emperor of Germany. There is much enthusiasm at Berlin.

The French acceptance of a conference for the settlement of the Eastern question is unconditional. Bismarck considers the delay in voting on the new constitution as worse than working mischief.

Tours, Dec. 7.—A dispatch from LeMansons by the arrival of a Paris balloon with news of the 6th, says, no military operations of importance have taken place since the 5th. Trochu received a letter from Von Moltke giving defeat of the army of the Loire, and granting a safe conduct to parties designated to verify the news. The offer was refused. The government issued a proclamation giving the facts and saying that even if the news were true, they would still have a right to expect a great movement of the nation.

Advices from reliable parties show that the success of the Prussians was greater than at first supposed. When the balloon started, firing was heard South of Paris.

The Paris journals announce a change in the armies of the Loire. It is divided into three corps, commanded by Bourbaki, Chanzy and Billot.

LAYING DOWN GRAPEVINES.

This is a delicate operation; too much care cannot be exercised. As there are so many ways to do this, though in the main the same, we will not introduce another, which, after all, may be one of the many. The point is to lay down without injury. And to do this it is to be known how much pulling the vines will bear. Experience has demonstrated that they will bear but little—in no case enough to lay them down properly. Not that they get seriously, or even perceptibly hurt, but there is the harm, nevertheless; of this we are satisfied by careful experiment for years. Especially do these remarks apply to the fast growers. We have seen the thick brittle cane of the Isabella snap at a half bend to the ground. This, of course, ruins the cane. But a mere strain will hurt it—here is the chief danger. The cane strained without any perceptible harm, side by side with another cane of equal growth left standing, will show a difference the next season. This we have never known to fail. The first quarter or half of the season will show this hurt; but the difference will be perceptible, more or less, at the end of the season. The late, and especially the tender sorts, cannot bear this.

Better keep up and run a risk unless the sort is very tender. In a mild, uniform winter, such half hardy sorts as the Isabella and Diana are better on the trellis. We should, perhaps, note exceptions. Where the growth has been mainly the latter part of the season, that is, where there is a tender growth in the fall, it were perhaps best to lay it down; bend at least so that the tips reach the ground. But where the growth has been a full, vigorous, ripe one, keep up; even if the winter proves severe, there will be less harm than will accompany the usual rash way of laying down the vine, or the still more rash way of burying it, laying it down, as is done by some, below the level of the ground, subject to dampness, vermin and other evils. A careful hand will sometimes cause a vine in this way to escape. But oftener will it suffocate or get hurt otherwise. Much trouble is taken with grape vines in this way that may as well be obviated.

Trim in the Fall where the vine is vigorous and but little needs to be done. Otherwise, if rather much especially large branches or canes have to be cut away, do it in the spring, the early part, or in February. The hurt, however much it may be of cutting away, will not be joined to that of winter.

There are severe seasons that will hurt the vine if lifted up—seasons in which the changes are great and frequent and the temperature reaches low. In such case the half hardy sorts suffer, the tender may be cut off, and even the vigorous show signs of the winter's severity. But these are exceptions. The writers in the main are to be taken; the hurt, we are confident, is less from the weather than from the strain of laying down. Many things, it will thus be seen, many to be taken into account on the subject of winter protection of grapes. A careful hand may be trusted to put down that vine, as a general thing. He must, however, have had experience, or there will be snapping and splitting of canes. There is evidence that the vine will become hardened, used to the winter. We think we can say we have seen this in the Isabella, several vines of which have been kept exposed most of the seasons for many years. They seem to be hardier, to withstand the cold and irregularity better. Each year they bear a good crop of fruit, of an excellent quantity, large bunches, and a thick, thrifty cane.—Cor. Country Gentleman.

HORACE ON SUBSOIL PLOWING.

A correspondent of the Boston Post continues to relate ridiculous stories about Horace Greeley's experiences in the Adirondacks. This is the last:

The philosopher also made the mistake of keeping up "his arguments" with the blunt back-woodsman when they were not appreciated or listened to. In fact when Horace, to his own satisfaction, demonstrated that a certain piece of land, so-called, for it was really nothing but a surface of limestone rock, could be made to produce a crop of strawberries, the frontiersman put what he supposed would be a crusher, by asking.

"How would you get a furrer deep enough to plant anything."

This question broke the whole line of the farmer's defenses; and Horace, with the keen perception of Von Moltke, and the quickness to take advantage of a break in the line of defense so peculiar to the first Napoleon, triumphantly replied;

"Prepare the ground with subsoil plowing."

"With what!" said the countyman, drawing back as from a lunatic.

"Why," said Horace. "I'd do it with a subsoil plow put into the surface of the lot, say three feet."

The sweat started on the poor countryman's face as he gasped out,

"Makes furrer with a plow three feet thick in them tamal rocks! Why, you cussed old fool, a yarthquake couldn't get down that far if it tried for three months.'

The New York papers describe the brilliant marriage of Senor Don M. Lopez Roberts, the Spanish Minister, to Miss Angelita Terry, a young lady of Cuban birth and rare accomplishments. Miss Terry was born in Cienfuegos in 1846. Her father, Don Antonio Terry, who is dead, and her mother, Donna Louisa Yespi, emigrated to Cuba from the Republic of Venezuela during the struggle between Spain and the present South American colonies. Her uncle, Mr. Thomas Terry, who arrived from Cuba last week, is one of the wealthiest men of the island, his fortune being estimated at about $15,000,000. Owing to the recent death of a daughter, Mr. Thomas Terry was unable to attend the wedding and give away the bride. Though born a Cuban, Miss Terry resided from infancy in the capital of France, where she was educated. She left the latter city after the death of her father, a few years ago, and has ever since been lived in New York with her widowed mother. Miss Terry speaks Spanish, French and English fluently. She is very highly esteemed in fashionable circles, and no better evidence of her popularity can be adduced than the fact that her bridal gifts from American friends alone are valued at over $40,000.

Edmund Yates describes the Marquis of Lorne, who is to marry the Princess Louise, of England, as "so very young and determined to look so old; complexion delicate and pink; finely cut and feminine features; a slight red moustache, his only facial adornment; genuine Rufus locks, small ears, hands, and feet; a light, springy step; head high in the air; a gait which expresses generally a full consciousness of the rights, titles, and belongings to the Dukedom of Argyll, and a fine nature, which will be improved by time, like generous wine."

The New York Herald believes that Rome is speedily to become the centre of a grand area of progress—of a "scene of brilliant life and social power, far wider and grander, because more hallowed by the sway of love and peace, than the tinsel magnificence that culminated in the Golden House of Nero and the storied revelings of the Pantheon."

The woman who undertook to scour the canals has abandoned the job, owing to the high price of soap. The last that was heard of her she was skimming the scum.

LIFE INSURANCE AS AN INVESTMENT.

THE

WIDOWS AND ORPHANS

BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK.

Cash Assets over $1,500,000,

ISSUES ALL FORMS OF NON FORFEITABLE, WHOLE LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES, on the Mutual Cash Plan, declaring dividends annually after the first annual premium paid. Assets exclusively Cash, with no portion of its reserve fund in premiums notes, consequently its "reserve" is stronger than that of any company doing business in this State. No "definite surrender values guaranteed" as an inducement to new business, but reference is made to the average amount paid on each surrendered policy, as shown by the New York Insurance Reports, 1869, as evidence of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a minimum "Definite Cash Surrender Value." Death losses have not occurred out of several hundred policy holders in this State, which fact must establish the better ability of the Company to pay larger dividends than companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. "Fictitious Dividends are not declared, but dividends are given from the actual surplus, in accordance with the Company's charter. The attention of the public is invited to the following comparison of cost, demonstrating the advantages over ordinary insurances, of the POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks; upon which elements of administration the security of a Life insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its Cash assets are upwards of $13,000,000 000 00, and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of Promissory Notes, as in many Companies.
3. Its Cash Income per annum is over $6,500,000 00, and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes of hand of policy-holders, as is the case in many Companies.
5. It has paid to Widows and Orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4,000,000 00
6. Such payments are made in Cash, and not partly in Cancelled Notes, as is the case in many Companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a Policy, for Premium Notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $2,500,000 00, and upwards, in cash divided among Policy Holders, (this included the dividend for the present year,) as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the Stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available, as case in payment of Premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start, and not postponed until the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made More progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the World.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected, and its dealings so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other Company in the World.
16. It leaides all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment Policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year, ending December 1, 1869, was $51,021,041.
18. Its Policies average larger in amount than those of any other Company, showing that Capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many Companies.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with the safety of the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business, as is the case with many new Companies.
21. It is the favorite Company in the United States, as is shown by its new business last year, being nearer $13,000,000 greater than any other Company.

R. H. LEE,

BOOT AND SHOE MAKER,

Has taken charge of Mr. D. C. Murray's Custom Boot and Shoe Manufactory, where he will be pleased to see his old friends. Customers and every body who desires a number one pair of Boots, Gaiters or Shoes, made up in any style on this side of the Atlantic. Having had thirty years experience in this business he flatters himself that he cannot be excelled North or South. He refers to those who patronized him in the Fall of 1868, while manufacturing here, and every Chapel Hill student who has been there within the last thirty (30) years.
